

Final Draft TLUP (version published November 6, 2025) Errata

This errata shows additional changes to be incorporated into the Final Draft TLUP that was published on November 6, 2025. This errata includes page number references from the Final Draft TLUP (version published November 6, 2025). Text additions are shown in underline and deletions are shown in ~~strikethrough~~.

Chapter 1: Introduction

Page 9

“The District recognizes that the submerged lands and tidelands in the TLUP Area fall within the ~~unceded~~ traditional ancestral territory of the Kumeyaay People. This acknowledgement also recognizes the ongoing relationship between the Kumeyaay Nations and the water and lands in the TLUP Area.”

Water and Land Use

Page 39 – Legend on Figure 3.1.1 TLUP Water and Land Use Designations

WATER USE DESIGNATIONS:

Federal Navigation Channel

Ecology

Page 78 – Coastal Habitat Adaptation Strategies text box

- Use eco-friendly building materials such as bio-enhancing ~~concrete~~ concrete or other nature-based solutions

Safety & Resiliency

Page 98 – SR Policy 3.2.3 d.

d. ~~Explores~~ Establishes the potential for nature-based SLR adaptation strategies and identify areas that could integrate innovative natural resource protection, enhancement, and restoration solutions while providing appropriate SLR resilience;;

Planning District 11

Page 144 – 5.11.1(C) Special Allowances

PD11.1 to be identified as “Appealable”

Glossary

Page 202 – Commercial Fishing: Fishing duly authorized under applicable state and federal laws or regulations, in which fish, or other seafood, wild harvested, either in whole or in part, are intended to enter commerce or enter commerce through sale, barter, or trade. Live bait ~~Bait~~-barge operations that support fishing industries are also considered “commercial fishing.”